

Self-Laminating Labels

When hand-written information needs to be protected from wear and tear, Self-Laminating Labels will provide the ultimate protection. Available in white paper or vinyl film. Pressure-sensitive adhesive backing. Lamination may be attached at the side or top (see shapes below). Simply write on the label with a pen (for paper labels) or permanent marker (for vinyl labels). Next remove the liner from the lamination flap to expose the adhesive. Then press down the permanent protective lamination.

1. Write Custom Info

2. Full Adhesive Laminate over written copy

3. Smooth down permanent protective laminate

1. Write your information on the label

2. Remove the backing paper from the clear adhesive lamination

3. Press the clear lamination firmly over the label to protect the written information
